Shows Only. Movies Are Not Accepted.

Quality Over Quantity

We're intentionally limiting our platform to just 10–15 shows at a time. We're not trying to build the biggest library; we're focused on building a great one.

We want to bring audiences a carefully curated selection of high-quality, relatable shows featuring authentic characters, real emotions, and stories that connect with everyday life. Our goal is to create shows that people genuinely look forward to watching, get excited about, and can't wait to see return for another season.

We believe great storytelling matters more than a massive library. We want every show on Relacion to be worth watching—and every new season to be something audiences eagerly anticipate.

The Shows We're Looking For

We're currently looking for funny, heartfelt, and relatable shows centered on real people, relationships, marriage, and everyday situations audiences can connect with. From laugh-out-loud comedy to the heartfelt ups and downs of love, we want stories that entertain, move, and resonate with viewers.

- Episode Length: Each episode should be approximately 1–2 minutes long, with a minimum total season runtime of 45 minutes.
- Video Format: Vertical 9:16 aspect ratio, designed for mobile viewing.

Keep It Real - Avoid predictable clichés, over-the-top twists, and unrealistic storylines.

We're interested in fresh perspectives, compelling characters, and storytelling that feels natural, honest, and entertaining.

- We are looking for comedy micro-series with authentic, believable performances that feel like real life. We want natural conversations, genuine reactions, and humor that comes from relatable situations.

- We want viewers to feel like they are watching a genuine conversation unfold, not a staged scene where the actors are trying too hard to be funny.
- Quality, realism, and natural performances are essential to the Relacion comedy style.

We're also open to dramedies that blend humor and drama in authentic, relatable ways. We are looking for authentic relationship stories, not formulaic or exaggerated dramas. We want original, engaging stories with believable characters, genuine emotions, and situations that feel true to life. Make us laugh, make us cry, or make us think. Most importantly, give us stories that audiences can recognize from their own lives.

Storytelling Comes First

You don't need a huge production budget or expensive equipment to submit a show. We care about good storytelling, compelling characters, and relatable situations, not how much money you spent making it. We don't care how you made your show. We care about whether it's a good show.

Smartphone Is Welcome - Shows filmed with a smartphone are absolutely welcome on Relacion. You don't need expensive cameras or professional filming equipment to tell a great story.

However, the finished show must still deliver a high-quality viewing experience. We expect clear visuals, good lighting, clean and clear audio, and an overall polished presentation that keeps viewers engaged and allows them to enjoy the story without distractions.

It's not about the equipment you use, it's about the quality of the finished show.

AI-Generated & Animation Are Welcome

AI-generated productions must be high quality and visually realistic, with characters, environments, performances, and an overall presentation that feel natural and believable.

Animated shows, including AI-generated animation, are also welcome, provided they deliver engaging stories, high-quality visuals, and a polished overall presentation.
